

Huntsville Reproductive Medicine, P.C. Closure FAQ

- When will Huntsville Reproductive Medicine officially close for business?
 - January 1st, 2025
- What will happen to my medicated treatment/IUI cycle?
 - After November 30, 2024 we will no longer initiate new cycles to ensure that all cycles are completed prior to the closing of Huntsville Reproductive Medicine, P.C.
- How can I get a copy of my medical records?
 - You must complete/sign a Medical Release Form (found on our website www.huntsvilleivf.com). Signed medical release forms can be returned to the office via fax (256) 213-9978, emailed to patientpaperwork@hsvrm.com, or mailed to the office. We will not be able to accommodate walk-in requests for records.
 - Please allow up to 10 business days for us to prepare your records.
- How can we get a copy of my partner's medical records?
 - Your partner must complete/sign their own Medical Release Form and follow the same steps above.
- When is the last cycle to retrieve my eggs?
 - October 2024 will be our final IVF egg retrieval cycle.
- When is the last cycle to transfer my embryo(s)?
 - December 2024 will be our final embryo transfer cycle.
- I have embryos/sperm/eggs stored at Huntsville Reproductive Medicine. What will happen to them?
 - Rest assured that your embryos/sperm/eggs remain safely stored at HRM. We are currently formulating a plan for them. Once a plan has been finalized, you will be notified.
- Can I dispose of my embryos/sperm/eggs?
 - Due to the recent Alabama Supreme Court ruling, we are no longer discarding embryos. You can opt to discard your eggs and/or sperm. To do so, please email Laura at lholland@hsvrm.com to set up an appointment for discard consent and notary.
